Head of Chambers, H. M. MOHAMMED & Co.

Muhammad Sani Saad is a seasoned legal practitioner with over six years of post-call experience spanning litigation, corporate and commercial law, real estate, and dispute resolution. Known for his strategic thinking and commitment to legal excellence, he currently serves as the Head of Chambers at H. M. Mohammed & Co., a prominent and multidisciplinary law firm based in Kano.

Muhammad began his legal career at M.A. Ila & Co., where he developed a solid foundation in corporate and commercial legal practice. His early years were marked by active involvement in transactional advisory, contract negotiation, and corporate compliance work for a diverse clientele. In early 2023, he joined H. M. Mohammed & Co., a firm known for handling high-profile litigation and complex commercial matters. Since then, he has played a central role in leading teams, managing key client portfolios, and delivering results in both contentious and non-contentious matters.

As Head of Chambers, Muhammad combines legal acumen with practical business insight, overseeing case strategy, supervising junior counsel, and ensuring the firm maintains its reputation for integrity, professionalism, and client-focused advocacy. His leadership has contributed to the firm's continued success in practice areas such as intellectual property, real estate, civil and criminal litigation, and commercial transactions.

Driven by a passion for justice and a results-oriented approach, Muhammad remains committed to upholding the highest standards of the legal profession while mentoring the next generation of lawyers.
